

Amy Shamroe
President

Amy Shamroe lives in Traverse City, MI. She was elected Mayor of Traverse City in 2023 and served as a City Commissioner and Mayor Pro Tem prior to being elected mayor. She works in independent publishing. She is a member of AAUW-Traverse City Area and has served in various branch offices, including co-President. In addition to her work with AAUW, Amy sits on several boards in support of children's literacy and the Traverse Area District Library Friends of the Library board where she serves as Publicity Chair.