

Linda Kevorkian
Co-VP of Programs

Linda Kevorkian was born in the Detroit area and has lived in this area most of her life. She graduated from Western Michigan University with a major in Elementary Education, with minors in English and Drama. She also earned a master's degree from Oakland University in Reading with endorsements in Learning Disabilities, Emotional Impairment and Administration. In addition, she attended Grand Valley State University to become certified as a Special Education Supervisor. Linda taught in Southfield Public Schools for 34 years as a Reading Specialist and a Special Educator who was a leader in Community Programs.

Linda is a member of the Birmingham Branch and chairs the Study and Interest Groups. She is currently Co-VP of Programs for AAUW of Michigan with new co-VP Sharon McKenna. Her goal is to be instrumental in assisting branches develop informative, exciting programs to be shared across the state.