

Mary Nameth
Diversity and Inclusion Director

Mary joined the American Association of University Women – Dearborn Affiliate in 2021. She immediately took over the Book Sale, and is currently the Membership VP, editor of the Legacy (newsletter), DEI, and Crafty Creations Chair. Additionally, she serves on the Senior Citizens Commission for the Mayor of the City of Dearborn.

Mary has an Associate Degree in Property Administration and worked as a Level III Assessor in the real estate field for twenty years. She has a Bachelor of Arts from Madonna University and Masters in Education with an Inclusion Specialist Certification from the University of Michigan Dearborn. She taught Language Arts at Stout Middle School. Because Mary throws herself into her work, she loved all of her jobs but landing at Stout Middle School was her favorite. She says that all she did was laugh. The kids were fun and funny.

Mary is the wife of Allen (they met in kindergarten), mother of five adult children, grandmother of five adult children, and owner of Agusta Maximillian Ruffinstein II; her Shetland Sheep Dog Gus.
